University of Missouri System Undergraduate Financial Aid Summary Report FY2010-FY2014 (Missouri Resident Undergraduates)

Executive Summary

The Undergraduate Financial Aid Summary Report includes undergraduate financial aid distribution patterns for the University of Missouri System and the four campuses from fiscal year 209-10 (FY10) through fiscal year 20113+ (FY14). In the first part of this report nine questions are addressed at the UM System level:

- 1. How many students received and what type of aid was received?
- 2. Has grant aid kept pa with increases in tuition and required fees?
- 3. How has the distribution of institutional gift aid changed over the past five years?
- 4. How has the distribution of PLUS loans changeer the past five years?
- 5. What percent of tuition and required fees is met by grant aid?
- 6. How has the number of aid recipients with need changed by income level?
- 7. How do financial aid packages vary by income level
- 8. For students that have need, what is the average amount of unmet financial need?
- 9. Can families afford to pay the expected family contribution?

The second part of the report provides campus financial aid distribution patterns for the past five years, which may diffeom systemlevel findings.

Systemwide trends highlighted include:

Total aid to students with need is awarded from a combination of aid based on merit and aid based on need. Over the pastylears, there has been a 3.5% increase in the overall nubrer of full-time, degree

The volume of Parent Loans for Undergraduate Students (PLUS) thearresased from FY10 to FY14 for both studentwith financial need and for students without need In FY10, 3,786 parents borrowed anværage $,760 to meet their child's education exenses. Five years later, 3,080 parent province approximately $6,346 to cover these expenses. Systeighe, the amount of PLUS loans distributed decrease from $37 million in FY10 to $19.5 million in FY4 (Table 1.4).

Students with incomes less than $40,000 have the highest amount of financial need and receive larger total financial aid awards than higher income students. However, lower income students continue to have the largest amount of unmet financial need (Figure 1.4).

The unmet financial need of students increased in all income levels over the past five years (Figure 1.5).

The contextual basis of financial aid distribution

Less than 20% of undergraduates attending the University of Missouri pay the entire cost of attendance outf-pocket. The majority of students receive some type of financial assistance to attend the University in the form of grants, scholarships, work study or loans. In addition, financial assistance comes from a wide variety of sources including the state and federal governments, profit and profit organizations, and the University (institutional gift aid). In addition, a significant amount of financial aid that is distributed is based on financial need (i.e. it is documented that the student's family cannot afford the entire cost of attendance). A student must complete a Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) in order to determine the extent of financial need and the type and amount of aid based on need that can be awarded.

Many of the tables and figures throughout this report reference terms such as budgeted cost of attendance, financial need, grant aid, and tunewed. Assuming that a student has completed a FAFSA, Figure A.1 is provided to give an overview of how a student's financial aid package is determined.

There has been a significant increase in the overall number of students with need that received institutional grant aid, and the average institutional grant award increased nearly $150 over the past five ses. In FY10 there were 11,273 instituted grants awarded to students with need. There ease award amount was $2,794veFjears later there were 14,675 institutional grants awarded to students with need and the average af the award was $2,941.
